

APPENDIX 5.1

Planned Briefs:

4th Quarter

- i. Update on the status and management of CBSD in East and Central Africa (James Legg and Pheneas Ntawuruhunga)
- ii. Pilot use of OFV for CMD resistant cassava in Western Kenya (CRS-Kenya)
- iii. Removing infected banana mats to contain BXW: experiences in Uganda and Rwanda (Maina Mwangi)
- iv. Critical lessons learned from BXW control in Kagera Region (Tanzania)
- v. GIS Targeting to combat CMD and BXW in the East African Great Lakes region (Chris Legg)
- vi. Food security in Uganda (Steffen Abele)

5th Quarter

- vii. Re-inventory of improved CMD-resistant cassava varieties in the Great Lake Region (Pheneas Ntawuruhunga)
- viii. Livelihood Impact of CMD in Burundi (CRS-Burundi)
- ix. Responding to BXW in the midst of multiple banana pathogens and pests (Maina Mwangi)
- x. Participatory Community Evaluation of BXW Education Campaigns. What works and what do not? Lessons from Uganda (CRS-Uganda)
- xi. BXW, combination of FFW / Seed Fairs / Eradication / Training & Education (CRS-Rwanda)
- xii. Communication strategies to address BXW and CMD / the use of radio and other non- traditional communication systems (CRS-DRC)